RIVERMEN OF GERMANY

NEED NOT JOIN COLORS

(By Latest Mail)

BERLIN, Sept. 1.—In order to meet the scarcity of experienced men for river and canal traffic, the military authorities have ordered that all rivermen belonging to the Landsturm need not enlist, and a call has been made for old rivermen, who have entered other trades, to return immediately to river work.

It is pointed out that it is of vital importance to keep commerce on the inland water routes going, for the transportation of foodstuffs, fuel and other necessities, and the authorities are doing their utmost to maintain this service. The only thing lacking, it is said, is the experienced riverman, so many of whom have gone to war. So far as ships and other shipping facilities go, it is declared, there is no handicap.

ASSOCIATED PRESS

GERMAN RIGHT WING

REPORTED CRUMBLING

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 30.—After twenty-four hours of almost ceaseless fighting at close range, between the German right and the forces of the Allies advancing from Peronne on the invaders' entrenchments before St. Quentin, the Germans have been defeated and the right wing has crumbled.

This is the news which came late last night from Paris to the Exchange Telegraph, confirming the earlier reports issued by the government press bureau of heavy fighting before St. Quentin.

"It is stated here tonight," says the Exchange Telegraph correspondent in Paris, "that the German right has been entirely broken up and is falling back towards Guise in disorganized retreat, with the Allies pursuing and giving no opportunity for the broken remnants to reform or take up a new position for defense."

"All automobiles in Northern France have been requisitioned to carry ammunition to the pursuing Allies, to allow the troops to travel as lightly as possible and to remain on the heels of the Germans."

BELGIANS SHORT

OF PROVISIONS

LONDON, Eng., Sept. 30.—According to reports that have reached here the food question in Brussels has become a serious one and the Germans are facing a grave problem.

One hundred and eighty thousand citizens have applied to the Germans for rations, the outside sources of supply to the residents of the city having been closed with the German occupation.

The German commissary is already taxed by the demands of the troops and it is with greatest difficulty that the demands of the hungry populace are now being met.

JAPANESE AT

GATES OF TSINGTAU

(Special cable to Nippon Jiji.)
TOKIO, Japan, Sept. 30.—A fierce engagement was fought yesterday near the gates of Tsingtau. The German troops made a stubborn resistance against the onslaught of the Japanese and suffered a heavy loss in life. One hundred and fifty Japanese were killed or wounded.

Almost 200 Germans were captured by the Japanese.

The attacking troops now occupy the hills beyond Tsingtau, and are preparing for a general attack from that place. The Japanese are confident of victory.

KAISER'S NEPHEW

ATTEMPTS ESCAPE

LORIENT, France, Sept. 30.—Count von Schwerin, nephew of Kaiser Wilhelm, who had been brought here with other German prisoners after the repulse of the German invasion along the Marne, yesterday attempted to make his escape from Belle Isle, where he was being held in semi-detainment. His dash for freedom came to a speedy end and he was transferred to the citadel at Port Louis, the fortified harbor at the entrance of the bay. Here he will be held in close confinement.

CRUISER LEIPZIG ##### AGAIN LOCATED

LIMA, Peru, Sept. 30.—It was officially reported here yesterday that the German cruiser Leipzig, which sailed from San Francisco some time ago and whose whereabouts has been a mystery, was off Lobos de Tierra yesterday, coaling and taking on provisions from the German steamer Amasia, a new freighter which only recently arrived in Pacific waters.

KAISER'S MEN

MARCH ON ANTWERP

AMSTERDAM, Holland, Sept. 30.—The Belgians at Moll, 30 miles east of Antwerp, were driven out of the town on Sunday, falling back upon Antwerp. At Liere, 10 miles from Antwerp, a bombardment began yesterday morning, being replied to by the Belgian artillery. The citizens of Liere have fled to Antwerp for safety.

DESPATCH REPORTS CARE TO PRESERVE CONTENTS IN THE LOUVRE MUSEUM

(By Latest Mail)

BERLIN, Sept. 1.—The following despatch from Geneva appears in a number of the German papers: "For three weeks extensive preparations have been made in the Louvre Museum in Paris for safeguarding the art treasures there against bombs thrown from Zeppelin balloons. Most of the paintings are being packed away in iron boxes. The 'Venus of Milo' and the 'Mona Lisa' were locked up in steel vaults. The Greek saloon with the masterpieces of Phidias is laid out entirely with bags of sand. The upper stories of the Louvre were cleared of their contents and changed into a military hospital from which now flutters the Red Cross flag. Numerous paintings were removed from the Luxembourg Museum to the old Seminaire."

Carl Keune of Hartford, 27, is a patient at a New London hospital suffering from a fractured collarbone and other injuries received near Saybrook Sunday afternoon. Keune was giving a man a lift on his motorcycle when in going over a bumper the man became frightened and threw his arms around Keune's neck, causing him to lose control of the machine. The passenger escaped unhurt.

The Rev. Guy Roberts, "Mahn Sneeze," president of the United States Hay Fever Association, announced that the annual convention of the members will take place at Bethel, N. H., September 2.
